

New Hope Christian Church

Disciples Making Disciples

My parents were charter members of New Hope Christian Church, so I have been active in the NHCC body since the age of six. In 1992 I married Jodie, and together we have served in many different areas at New Hope including youth ministry, vacation Bible school, teaching small groups, mission trips, and music ministry. We love to open our home to students and adults, study His word, have fun, and grow together.

God has blessed us with four daughters. Shelby and Emma are attending Indiana Wesleyan University in Marion, and Riley and Faith are in high school. On a daily basis, I am lucky to farm alongside my dad and brother at Lamb Farms, Inc. We also have a non-profit organization called Agristewards that teaches a curriculum called "Farming God's Way" in various parts of the world. As a family, we have traveled to several different countries in the Caribbean, Africa, and Central America to share His love, teach, and worship.
